Regional Trail Highlights

CeMar Trail

The concept behind the CeMar trail is to connect Cedar Rapids (Ce) and Marion (Mar). The trail starts at Cedar Lake in Cedar Rapids and runs northeast along H Ave and then a paved trail under 1st Avenue in Cedar Rapids to the north side of Calvary Cemetery at Indian Creek. The City of Marion has built the CeMar through Thomas Park and to the crossing with Grant Wood Trail. Trail users can then enjoy the Grant Wood or Boyson Trails to explore Uptown Marion or Northern Cedar Rapids. Sights along this trail will include Cedar Lake, Faulks Woods, and Indian Creek.

Cherokee Trail

The Cherokee Trail extends west from Edgewood Road NW at Johnson Ave through Cherokee and Jacolyn parks, on Gordon Ave, and into Cherry Hill Park. Trail users continue west on E Ave to Morgan Creek Park from there. Future extensions along this trail will connect downtown Cedar Rapids to Morgan Creek Park. Sights along this trail will include Cherry Hill, Jacolyn, and Morgan Creek Parks.

Edgewood Trail

Edgewood Trail is paved south from Ellis Trail/Blvd to O Ave NW (which has new bike lanes east almost to downtown). Future extensions of this trail will connect to the 42nd Street bike lanes, as well as neighborhoods north of Highway 100. Sights along this trail include Robbins Lake Park and the

Grant Wood Trail

The Grant Wood Trail is a major west-east trail for the trail system. It now starts on the west end at Council St. NE in Cedar Rapids and goes east across Cedar Rapids and Marion and extends as a paved trail to Creekside Road in Linn County. From there, trail continues as a grass trail northeast almost to Springville Road. Future extensions of the trail will go north into Springville and go east into Jones County to connect with the trail west of Martelle.

Sac & Fox Trail

The Sac and Fox Trail is a nature trail with seven miles of crushed limestone trail in the southeast corner of Cedar Rapids. The trail runs from the Prairie Park Fishery eastward along the Cedar River and north along Indian Creek to East Post Road. Expect a great outdoor experience and don't be surprised by deer, eagles, etc. along the way. This trail includes five single-track mountain bike trails off the main trail.

Ellis Trail

Looking to enjoy a scenic trail that overlooks the Cedar River? The Ellis Trail is the one for you! The Ellis Trail has approximately 3 miles of paved trail from 1st Street NW to the intersection of Edgewood Road and Ellis Road. The trail follows the Cedar River through Ellis Park, Ellis Harbor, and along Robbins Lake.

Cedar Valley Nature Trail

The Cedar Valley Nature Trail is a major north-south trail for the trail system. The trail is approximately 70 miles through four counties from Evansdale to Ely. Towns along the trail include LaPorte City, Brandon, Urbana, Center Point, Robins, Hiawatha, and Cedar Rapids. The trail is paved except from 2.5 miles east of LaPorte City to Urbana. The Cedar Valley Nature Trail is part of both the American Discovery Trail and the Great American Rail Trail, transcontinental trails.
