

February 2025 Trail News

Volunteers are the BEST!

How does LCTA Make Trails Happen? Well, it's all about the committees and amazing volunteers!

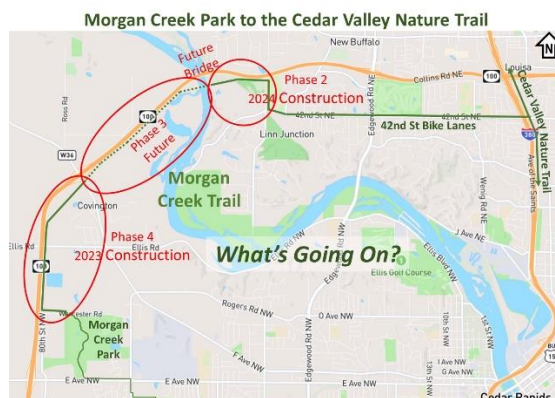

Soon it will be spring and planners will become doers! LCTA is looking for a few good trail friends to check out the 7 committees and if you see a fit, join us!

Just email contributor@linncountytrails.org

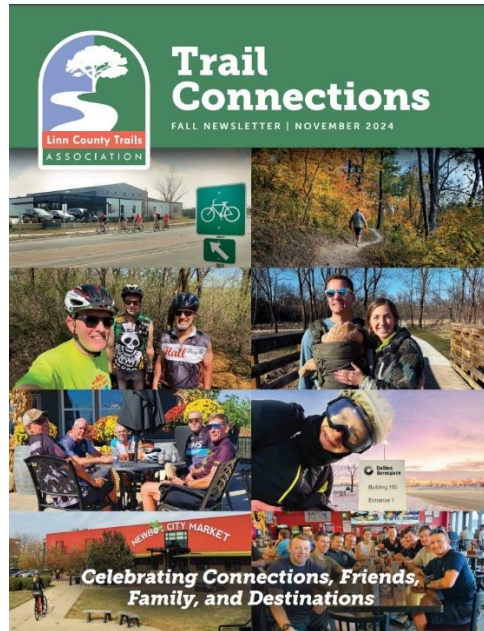

1. Events – Organize and staff the LCTA Farmers Market booth, help with community bike rides, health fairs, scavenger hunts, talk with groups about trails.

2. Network Growth – identify trails and prioritize trail projects with partners. Attend city, county partner meetings, foster and promote trails.

3. Communication – manage communications from website to email news, fall newsletter, annual report, press releases, renewals and thankyou's.

4. Fundraising-
Raising monetary and in-kind gifts from individuals, corporate sponsors and grants to increase funding for trail development in Linn County.

5. Maps – collaborate with the Metropolitan Planning Organization to develop an app map and hard copy version every two years. Build and monitor map boxes

6. Trail Safety and Maintenance - Identify issues with safety and maintenance, communication with the public and partners.

7. Trail Counters –Construct, place and maintain trail counters and map boxes
